DIRECTIONS: Coming from the North- Take the A7 heading south from Edinburgh and go through the towns of Galashiels and Selkirk. About 3 miles out of Selkirk take the road on your left signposted Lilliesleaf and Clerklands. Go right to the top of the hill and just over the brow of the hill the drive to the Ian Stark Equestrian Centre is on your right. Coming from the South- Take the A7 heading north and go through the towns of Langholm and Hawick, and pass the village of Ashkirk on your left. About 3 miles on from Ashkirk there is a road to the right signposted Clerklands and Lilliesleaf. Take that road and go right to the top of the hill – just over the brow of the hill the drive to the Ian Stark Equestrian Centre is on your right.. Coming from the East- If coming from the East you will hit the A68. Just north of Jedburgh take the B6400 and go through Ancrum. Continue along that road for about 5 miles until you reach a T-junction and take the left hand road to Lilliesleaf. Go through Lilliesleaf and as you come to the end of the village take the right hand road that goes between the Cross Keys pub and the Jammy Coo cafe. Continue along that road for about 3 miles until you reach another T-junction and again go right up a hill. Continue along that road – you will come across a right angle bend to the right and about a quarter of a mile after that the drive to the Ian Stark Equestrian Centre is on your left.
